Letter from Titu Mihaiescu (former Press Councillor in Stockholm, now a refugee in Buenos Ayres) to C. Vallimarescu, former Minister to Oslo, now on a temporary visit to the United States:

29 October, 1948

".....Patrichi was sent to conquer Radescu. He is now in the United States on a "mission"....(on behalf of the Iron Guards now in Argentine).

In the same letter Mihaiescu states that Ghenea, former Iron Guard Minister to Madrid (November 1940-February 1941), has an extremely strong position in Buenos Ayres and does what he likes with the Argentine Immigration Authorities. Mihaiescu says: "Ghenea states that Radescu has full confidence in him and makes full use of this in his relations with Argentine authorities."
